Thought for the day When people struggle to believe in God at all, our Christian faith in God as Trinity may seem somehow a needless complication. Yet, we do know that relationships and relationality stand at the heart of our human wellbeing. Words do fail us, of course, and yet we know that God in God's own very being is Love. This inner love (the "immanent Trinity") has been spoken and told, disclosed and revealed in Jesus and the Spirit (the "economic Trinity"). And yet, we affirm one God. This evident paradox must first of all be lived in prayer and only then haltingly alluded to in stumbling words. Prayer: Father, ground of our being, we know and believe that you are Love itself. Help us to let ourselves be embraced by your Love, as we follow Jesus and live by the gift of his Spirit to us all.

Fr K O'Mahony OSA.

Priest on duty this Sunday:

Fr Michael Moynihan: 087-6551902.

Vocations: "Go, therefore, make disciples of all the nations; baptise them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teach them to observe all the commands I gave you" How are you being called to glorify the Lord in response to His love? Could God be inviting you to the priesthood or consecrated life? Speak to your local priest or Diocesan Vocations Director, or email the National Vocations Office: email: info@vocations.ie

Mass Cards are available from the Parish Office. You can ring 066-9151208 and we can arrange for you to call or the cards can be posted out to anyone who requires them.

Pope Francis – Tweet: The Holy Spirit's advice is, "Put God before yourself". Only by emptying ourselves, do we leave room for the Lord; only by giving ourselves to him, do we find ourselves; only by becoming poor in spirit, do we become rich in the Holy Spirit. Let us put God in first place!
