Thought for the day: In our time, those who “persist” in religious faith can seem to outsiders “beside themselves.” The question needs to be asked: who is more sane, those who say life has a deep purpose and meaning and those who evidently content themselves with a “this world only” view. The apparently more rational view is ultimately irrational, in the literal sense that life has finally no reason, no ratio. By contrast, for the believer, behind the gift of creation stands a Giver. Within the gift of love, we come to know the Lover. As we gain and lose in life, finally nothing is ever truly lost. Faith is ultimately wholesome and utterly sane. Prayer: Father, help us to see your goodness at work around us. As we acknowledge the work of the Holy Spirit, may we be drawn to you, the giver of every gift.

Pope Francis on X: The Eucharistic bread speaks to us of a God who is not distant, but close and in solidarity with humanity; a God who does not abandon us but always seeks, waits for, and accompanies us, even to the point of placing himself, helpless, into our hands.

Gluten Free hosts are available from the priest at communion time.

Priest on duty this Sunday:

Fr Eoghan Ó Cadhla 087-6951318.

Paidir do Scoláirí:

God stay close to our students today
Guide their study and light their way.

Ease their nerves and comfort be,

With peace and love so tenderly.

May they remember the things they need,
And understand all that they study and read.

May they strive to give their best,
And do themselves justice in each test.

May the topics they know and like appear,
on the exam paper to lessen their fear.

And during the moments when they feel stressed, help them to remember the ways
they are blessed. Amen

Prayer of Blessed Henry Newman:

O Lord, support us all day long,
until the shadows lengthen,
and the evening comes, and the busy world is hushed,
and the fever of life is over, and our work is done.
Then in your mercy, grant us a safe lodging and a holy rest, and peace at last.
Amen.
