Thought for the Day: It is possible to live a merely sentient existence, paying attention only to the immediate and being satisfied once the urgent appetites are met. It is hard to say how many manage to sustain this form of sleepwalking! In our better moments, we all know that this is wholly inadequate, even on a merely human level. We are all of us called to rise above mere existence and to live life abundantly (cf. John 10:10). In the faith, the Advent call is to wake up from our slumbers. Metanoia (conversion or repentance) means a whole change of mindset, going right down to the roots of our being. It's the only project. Of course it takes time, but the time is now. Prayer: God of life abundant, may your advent call to life and love, hope and conversion touch us again and draw us closer to you. Amen. (Fr Kieran O'Mahony)

Christmas Pope Leo XIV on X: The Kingdom that Jesus comes to inaugurate is a shoot, a small branch sprouting from a trunk that promises rebirth when everything else seems to be dying. The coming of the Messiah was announced in the smallness of a shoot, because He can only be recognized by the little ones, by those who humbly know how to recognize the hidden details and traces of God in a seemingly lost story.

KCYS Diocesan Collection: Last year, the Kerry Diocesan Youth Service became the Kerry Community Youth Service, a new legal entity and 100% independent of the diocese. Bishop Ray would like to thank all from the diocese who have contributed their time, ability and energy to the Diocesan Youth Service over the past fifty years. While the new Youth Service is completely independent of the diocese, Bishop Ray is keen to support its commitment to young people in our diocese. The annual collection will be taken up this weekend Dec 6th/7th as a second collection after Communion. Your support is very much appreciated.
